To work together hence far ward for the welfare of the student community according to the Tailoring frame work mentioned below:

Tailoring involves the art and skill of creating, altering, and repairing clothing to fit individual preferences and measurements. Here are the key functions and aspects involved in tailoring:

Taking Measurements: The tailor measures the client's body dimensions accurately to ensure a precise fit. Measurements typically include chest, waist, hips, inseam, arm length, shoulder width, etc.

Pattern Making: Creating or adjusting patterns based on the measurements taken. This involves drafting or modifying templates that serve as guides for cutting fabric.

Cutting Fabric: Using the patterns to cut fabric pieces according to the client's measurements and design preferences. Precision in cutting is crucial to ensure the final garment fits well.

Sewing and Stitching: Assembling the cut fabric pieces using various sewing techniques such as hand stitching or machine sewing. This includes seams, hems, darts, and other details required for the garment.

Fitting and Adjustments: Fitting the garment on the client and making necessary adjustments for fit and comfort. This may involve altering seams, adjusting hem lengths, or tweaking other details to achieve the desired fit.

Tailoring Techniques: Employing specialized techniques such as pleating, tucking, darting, and gathering to shape and structure the garment as per the design and client's body shape.

Fabric and Material Knowledge: Understanding different types of fabrics, their properties, and how they behave during cutting, sewing, and wearing. This knowledge helps in selecting appropriate materials for specific garments.

Detailing and Finishing: Adding finishing touches to the garment, which may include hand-sewn buttons, buttonholes, zippers, linings, trims, and other embellishments to enhance the overall appearance and functionality.

Repair and Alterations: Providing services for repairing damaged clothing or altering existing garments to adjust size, length, or style according to the client's requirements.

Customer Consultation and Communication: Interacting with clients to understand their preferences, style choices, and any specific requirements for the garment. Clear communication ensures that the tailor meets the client's expectations.
